Paul Mitchell The School Cleveland & Columbus

LOCKER POLICY

Purpose — Paul Mitchell The School Cleveland and Paul Mitchell The School Columbus make lockers available to students to facilitate the daily storage of their learning materials and items related to their studies. Paul Mitchell The School Cleveland and Paul Mitchell The School Columbus manage lockers to ensure responsible use of property and for the health and safety of individuals.

Agreement — Paul Mitchell The School Cleveland and Paul Mitchell The School Columbus establish rules, guidelines and procedures to ensure responsible use and to control the contents of its lockers. By utilizing Paul Mitchell The School Cleveland and Paul Mitchell The School Columbus's lockers, students acknowledge and agree that locker use is a privilege and subject to immediate termination without notice and to such rules, guidelines and procedures established by Paul Mitchell The School Cleveland and Paul Mitchell The School Columbus from time to time, at its discretion.

GUIDELINES

- Lockers will be available to students during their scheduled school hours, lockers will be issued based on availability.
- At the end of each day /night a student must empty the locker.
- Lockers are for individual use only and are not to be shared. Locker content is the sole responsibility of the registered occupant of the locker. To reduce the risk of theft, students are encouraged to keep their lockers locked. Students should not store money, wallets, jewelry, credit or debit cards, or any other personal item of high value.
- Paul Mitchell The School Cleveland and Paul Mitchell The School Columbus are not in any way responsible for a locker’s contents or liable for the loss of or damage to items stored in lockers. Students are required to maintain their locker’s interior and exterior in a clean, neat and undamaged condition. Marking, defacing or graffiti on lockers is not acceptable.
- No person shall store in a locker: weapons of any kind, explosives, prohibited drugs, illegal or illicit items or substances or other items deemed by Paul Mitchell The School Cleveland and Paul Mitchell The School Columbus to be harmful, offensive or inappropriate.
- Paul Mitchell The School Cleveland or Paul Mitchell The School Columbus may in its sole discretion carry out or authorize searches/inspections for any reason. The following is a partial listing of examples of when Paul Mitchell The School Cleveland and Paul Mitchell The School Columbus will exercise its discretion without notice:
    - Locker abandonment.
    - Suspected contents that may be illegal, illicit or deemed by the school to be harmful, offensive or inappropriate.
    - At the request of or generally in cooperation with law enforcement authorities.
    - Investigative purposes related to suspected or alleged criminal, illegal, or inappropriate activities.
    - Risk to the general good of the school.
    - Risk to the general good of the student or student population.
    - Unregistered locker.
    - Physical damage to or defacing of the locker.

    - Odors (spoiled/rancid food, garbage or smelly contents).
    - Locker maintenance.
- Paul Mitchell The School Cleveland and Paul Mitchell The School Columbus work with the local law enforcement authorities and maintains the right in the school's sole discretion to allow law enforcement to carry out specific and random searches/inspections of locker contents. Such searches/inspections may be carried out with or without notice to or in the presence of the locker's occupant. Such police activity may include but is not limited to: random drug or weapon searches of lockers, backpacks, book bags, brief cases, containers, jackets and winter coats.
- Personal Belongings: All additional personal belongings must be stored in a locker or personal vehicle. Personal belongings are not permitted at workstations, in classrooms, or in clinic classroom areas unless school administration specifically authorizes them

SEARCH POLICY

Lockers and stations furnished for student use belong to the school and are subject to search by the school or police officials at any time for any reason. By entering onto the premises of the school, students agree that they and any items, including handbags, briefcases, purses, and personal belongings they bring with them, are subject to reasonable search by school personnel at any time for any reason.